

Call for Submissions

The Thirteenth Asian Logic Conference (ALC2013) has been successfully held in Guangzhou from September 16 to 20, 2013. Now we are going to organize conference proceedings to be published by World Scientific. Topics of interest include but not limited to the following: Recursion Theory, Set Theory, Model Theory, Theoretical Computer Science and Philosophic Logic.

Submissions from all participants of ALC2013 are welcome. Papers must be submitted as PDF files converted by Latex and sent to hsszxs@mail.sysu.edu.cn before December 31, 2013. Source files are also needed for further processing after acceptance. Each submission will be refereed.
